SHYC Junior Discipline Policy. The rules and discipline policy apply to all juniors and staff. Violations include, but are not limited to, breaking these SHYC junior rules, inappropriate language, destruction of property, bullying, and physical/verbal abuse of another student, member, or staff.

First Violation of Rules: The offender will be reprimanded by a senior staff member.

Second Violation of Rules: The program director or senior staff member will speak to the offender. The parents will also be informed. The offender may be asked to sit out from classes the rest of the day. A record of the event will be logged.

Third Violation of Rules: The offender will be suspended for one day. Parents and the SHYC Commodore will be informed. A record of the event will be logged.

Continued Abuse of Rules: Parents will be notified and the offender will be expelled from the program/club for the remainder of the season. SHYC Executive Committee will be informed. (Program fees will not be refunded).
